the Kings, commonly called The third Booke of the Kings.

C H A P. I.

1 Abishag cherishest Dauid in his extreame age. 5 Adonijah, Dauids deareling, vsurpeth the kingdome. 11 By the counsel of Nathan, 15 Bath-sheba moueth the king, 22 and Nathan secondereth her. 28 Dauid reneweth his oath to Bath-sheba. 32 Salomon by Dauids appointment, beeing annointed King by Zadok and Nathan, the people triumph. 41 Ionathan, bringing these newes, Adonijahs guests flie. 50 Adonijah flying to the hornes of the Altar, vpon his good behaviour is dismissed by Solomon.

¶ King Dauid was olde, and striken in yeeres, and they couered him with clothes, but hee gat no heate.

2 Wherefore his seruants said unto him, † Let there be sought for my lord the king † a yong virgin, and let her stand before the King, and let her † cherishe him, and let her lie in thy bosome, that my lord the King may get heate.

3 So they sought for a faire damosel throughout all the coasts of Israel, and found Abishag a Shunammitte, and brought her to the King.

4 And the damosell was very faire, and cherished the king, and ministred to him: but the king knew her not.

5 ¶ Then Adonijah the sonne of Haggith exalted himselfe, saying, I wil † be king: And he prepared him charets and horsemen, and fiftie men to runne before him.

6 And his father had not displeased him † at any time, in saying, why hast thou done so? And hee also was a very goodly man, and his mother bare him after Absalom.

† Hebr. from his dayes.

7 And hee † conferred with Joab the sonne of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the Priest: and they following Adonijah, † helped him.

8 But Zadok the Priest, and Benaiah the sonne of Jehoiada, and Nathan the Prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the mightie men which belonged to Dauid, were not with Adonijah.

9 And Adonijah slew sheepe, and oxen, and fat cattell, by the stome of Zoheleth, which is by || En-Rogel, and called all his brethren the kings sonnes, and all the men of Judah the kings seruants.

10 But Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah, and the mightie men, and Solomon his brother he called not.

11 ¶ Wherfore Nathan spake unto Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon, saying, Hast thou not heard that Adonijah the son of * Haggith doth reigne, and David our lord knoweth it not?

12 Now therefore come, let mee, I pray thee, giue thee counsell, that thou mayest saue thine owne life, and the life of thy sonne Solomon.

13 Goe, and get thee in unto King Dauid, and say unto him, Diddest not thou, my lord, O king, sweare unto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy sonne shall reigne after mee, and he shall sit vpon my throne: Why then doth Adonijah reigne?

14 Beholde, while thou yet talkest there with the king, I also will come in after thee, and † confirme thy words.

15 ¶ And Bath-sheba went in unto the King into the chamber: and the King was very olde, and Abishag the Shunammitte ministred unto the King.

16 And Bathsheba bowed, and did obeysance unto the king: and the king said, † what wouldest thou?

thou swarest by the L O R D thy God unto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy sonne shall reigne after me, and he shall sit vpon my throne:

18 And now behold, Adoniah reigneth; and now my lord the king, thou knowest i<sup>n</sup>ot.

19 And he hath slaine oxen, and fat cattell, and sheepe in abundance, and hath called all the sonnes of the king, and Abiathar the Priest, and Joab the captaine of the hoste: but Solomon thy seruant hath he not called.

20 And thou, my lord O king, the eyes of all Israel are vpon thee, that thou shouldest tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

21 Otherwise it shall come to passe, when my lord the king shal sleepe with his fathers, that I and my sonne So-

22 C And loe, while shee yet talked with the king, Nathan the Prophet also came in.

23 And they tolde the king, saying, Beholde Nathan the Prophet. And when hee was come in before the king, he bowed himselfe before the king with his face to the ground.

24 And Nathan said, My lord O king, hast thou said, Adoniah shall reigne after mee, and hee shall sit vpon my throne?

25 For hee is gone downe this day, and hath slaine oxen, and fat cattel, and sheepe in abundance, and hath called all the kings sonnes, and the captaines of the host, and Abiathar the Priest: and behold, they eate and drinke before him, and say, <sup>t</sup>God saue king Adoniah.

26 But me, euen me thy seruant, and Zadok the Priest, and Benaiah the sonne of Jehoiada, and thy seruant Solomon hath he not called.

27 Is this thing done by my lord
the king, and thou hast not shewed it vnto thy seruant, who shouldest sit on the throne of my lord the king, after him?

28 C Then king David answered, and said, Call me Bathsheba. And she came <sup>t</sup>into the kings presence, and stood before the king.

29 And the king sware, and said, As the L O R D liveth, that hath redeemed
my soule out of all distresse,

30 Euen as I sware vnto thee by the L O R D God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy sonne shall reigne

after me, and he shal sit vpon my throne
in my stead; euen so wil I certainly doe
this day.

31 Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the earth, and did reverence to the king, and said, Let my lord king
David live for euer.

32 C And king David said, Call me
Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah the sonne of Jehoiada. And they came before the king.

33 The king also saide vnto them, Take with you the seruants of your lord, and cause Solomon my sonne to ride vpon <sup>t</sup>mine owne mule, and bring him downe to Gihon.

34 And let Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, anoint him there King ouer Israel: and blow ye with the trumpet, and say, God saue King Solomon.

35 Then ye shall come vp after him, that hee may come and sit vpon my throne; for he shall be king in my stead:
and I haue appointed him to be ruler
ouer Israel, and ouer Judah.

36 And Benaiah the sonne of Jehoiada answered the King, and said, Amen: The L O R D God of my lord the king say so too.

37 As the L O R D hath bene with my lord the King, euen so be he with Solomon, and make his throne greater then the throne of my lord King David.

38 So Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah the sonne of Jeboiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites went downe, and caused Solomon to ride vpon
King Davids mule, and brought him to Gihon.

39 And Zadok the Priest tooke an horn of oile out of the Tabernacle, and anointed Solomon: and they blew the trumpet, and all the people said, God saue King Solomon.

40 And all the people came vp after him, and the people piped with || pipes, and reioyced with great ioy, so that the earth rent with the sound of them.

41 C And Adoniah and all the ghests that were with him, heard it as they had made an end of eating: and when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, hee said, Wherefore is this noise of the cittie, being in an bproare?

42 And while hee yet spake, behold, Jonathan the sonne of Abiathar the Priest came, and Adoniah sayde vnto him, Come in, for thou art a valiant man, and bringest good tidings.

43 And Jonathan answered, and said to Adoniah, Verily our lorde king David hath made Solomon king.

44 And the king hath sent with him Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah the sonne of Je-hoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelechites, and they haue caused him to ride vpon the kings mule.

45 And Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet haue anointed him king in Gihon: and they are come vp from thence reioycing, so that the citie rang againe: this is the noyse that yee haue heard.

46 And also Solomon sitteth on the throne of the kingdome.

47 And moreouer, the kings seruants came to blesse our lorde king David, saying, God make the name of Solomon better then thy name, and make his throne greater then thy throne. And the king bowed himselfe vpon the bed.

48 And also thus sayde the King, Blessed be the L O R D God of Israel, which hath giuen one to sit on mythrone this day, mine eyes even seeing it.

49 And all the guests that were with Adoniah, were afraid, and rose vp, and went every man his way.

50 ¶ And Adoniah feared because of Solomon, and arose, and went, and caught hold on the hornes of the Altar.

51 And it was tolde Solomon, saying, Behold, Adoniah feareth King Solomon: for loe, he hath caught hold on the hornes of the Altar, saying, Let King Solomon sweare vnto mee to day, that he will not slay his seruant with the sword.

52 And Solomon sayd, If hee will shewe himselfe a worthy man, there shall not an haire of him fall to the earth: but if wickednesse shall be found in him, he shall die.

53 So king Solomon sent, and they brought him downe from the Altar, and hee came and bowed himselfe to king Solomon: and Solomon sayde vnto him, Goe to thine house.

to sue vnto Solomon for Abishag, is put to death. 26 Abiathar hauing his life giuen him, is depriued of the Priesthood. 28 Ioab fleeing to the hornes of the Altar, is there slaine. 35 Benaiah is put in Ioabs roume, and Zadok in Abiathars. 36 Shimei confined to Ierusalem, by occasion of going thence to Gath, is put to death.

Now the dayes of David drew nigh, that he should die, and he charged Solomon his sonne, saying;

2 I goe the way of all the earth: be thou strong therefore, and shew thy selfe a man.

3 And keepe the charge of the L O R D thy God, to walke in his wayes, to keepe his Statutes, and his Commandements, & his Judgements, and his Testimonies, as it is written in the Law of Moses, that thou mayest * prosper in all that thou doest, and whithersoever thou turnest thy selfe:

4 That the L O R D may continue his word which hee spake concerning me, saying, If thy children take heede to their way, to walke before mee in trueth, with all their heart, and with all their soule, * there shall not † faile thee (sayd hee) a man on the throne of Israel.

5 Moreouer thou knowest also what Joab the sonne of Zeruiyah did to mee, and what he did to the two captaines of the hostes of Israel, vnto * Abner the sonne of Ner, and vnto * Amasa the sonne of Jether, whom hee slew, and † shed the blood of warre in peace, and put the blood of warre vpon his girdle that was about his loynes, and in his shooes that were on his feet.

6 Doe therefore according to thy wisedome, and let not his hoare head goe downe to the grane in peace.

7 But shewe kindnesse vnto the sonnes of * Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be of those that eate at thy table: for so they came to me when I fled because of Absalom thy brother.

8 And behold, thou hast with thee * Shimei the sonne of Gera, a Beniamite of Bahurim, which cursed mee with a † grieuous curse, in the day when I went to Mahanaim: but hee came downe to mee at Jordane, and I sware to him by the L O R D, saying, * I will not put thee to death with the sword.

<sup>13</sup> 13 And Adonijah the sonne of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, and she said, Comest thou peaceably? And he said, Peaceably.

14 He said moreover, I haue somewhat to say vnto thee. And she saide, Say on.

15 And he said, Thou knowest that the kingdome was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should raigne: howbeit the kingdome is turned about, and is become my brothers: for it was his from the L O R D .

16 And now I aske one petition of thee, † deny me not. And she saide vnto him, Say on.

18 And Bathsheba said, Well, I will speake for thee vnto the king.

19 ¶ Bathsheba therefore went vnto king Solomon, to speake vnto him for Adonijah: and the king rose vp to meeet her, and bowed himselfe vnto her, and late downe on his throne, and caused a seate to bee set for the Kings mother, and she late on his right hand.

20 Then she said, I desire one small petition of thee, I pray thee say me not nay: and the King said vnto her, Aske on, my mother, for I will not say thee nay.

21 And she saide, Let Abishag the Shunammite be giuen to Adonijah thy brother to wife.

22 And king Solomon answered, and said vnto his mother, And why doest thou aske Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Aske for him the kingdome also (for he is mine elder brother) euen for him, and for Abiathar the Priest, ‡ for Joab the sonne of Zeruiah, 23 Then king Solomon sware by the L O R D , saying, God doe so to me, and more also, if Adonijah haue not spoken this word against his owne life.

24 Now therefore as the L O R D liueth, which hath established mee, and set mee on the throne of David my father, and who hath made mee an house as he * promised, Adonijah shall be put to death this day.

12,13.</sup> 25 And king Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the sonne of Jehoiada, and he fell vpon him that he died.

26 ¶ And vnto Abiathar the Priest saide the King, Get thee to Anathoth, vnto thine own fields, for thou art † Worthy of death: but I will not at this time put thee to death, because thou barest the arke of the Lord G O D before David my father, and because thou hast bene afflicted in all wherein my father was afflicted.

31,35.</sup> 27 So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from beeing Priest vnto the L O R D : that hee might * fulfill the word of the L O R D , which hee spake concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

28 ¶ Then tidings came to Joab (for Joab had turned after Adonijah, though hee turned not after Absalom) and Joab fled vnto the Tabernacle of the L O R D , and caught hold on the horns of the Altar.

29 And it was told king Solomon that Joab was fled vnto the Tabernacle of the L O R D , and behold, hee is by the Altar: Then Solomon sent Benaiah the sonne of Jehoiada, saying, Goe fall vpon him.

30 And Benaiah came to the Tabernacle of the L O R D , and said vnto him, Thus saith the king, Come foorth. And he said, Nay, but I will die heere. And Benaiah brought the king word againe, saying, Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me.

31 And the king saide vnto him, Doe as he hath said, and fall vpon him, and bury him, that thou mayest take away the innocent blood which Joab shed, from mee, and from the house of my father.

32 And the L O R D shall returne his blood vpon his owne head, who fell vpon two men, more righteous and better then hee, and slew them with the sword, my father David not knowing thereof, to wit, * Abner the sonne of Ner, captaine of the hoste of Israel, and

33 Their blood shall therefore returne vpon the head of Joab, and vp-on the head of his seed for euer: but vp-on David, and vpon his seede, and vp-on his house, and vpon his throne, shall there bee peace for euer from the

34 So Benayah the sonne of Jehoiada went vp, and fell vpon him, and slew him, and hee was buried in his owne house in the wildernesse.

35 ¶ And the king put Benayah the sonne of Jehoiada in his roome ouer the hoste, and Zadok the Priest did the king put in the roume of Abiathar.

36 ¶ And the king sent, and called for Shimei, and said vnto him, Build thee an house in Jerusalem, and dwelle
there, and goe not forth thence any whither.

37 For it shall be, that on the day
thou goest out, & passest ouer the brooke Kidron, thou shalt know for certaine, that thou shalt surely die: thy blood shal
be vpon thine owne head.

38 And Shimei said vnto the King,
The saying is good: as my lord the king hath said, so will thy seruant doe. And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many dayes.

39 And it came to passe at the end of three yeeres, that two of the seruants of Shimei ranne away vnto Achish sonne of Maachah king of Gath: and they told Shimei, saying, Beholde, thy seruants be in Gath.

40 And Shimei arose, and sadled
his asse, and went to Gath to Achish, to seeke his seruants: and Shimei went and brought his seruants from Gath.

41 And it was told Solomon, that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come againe.

42 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said vnto him, Did I not make thee to sweare by the L O R D , and protested vnto thee, saying, Know
for a certaine, that on the day thou goest out, and walkest abroad any whither, that thou shalt surely die: And thou saidest vnto me, The word that I haue heard, is good.

43 Why then hast thou not kept the Oath of the L O R D , and the commandement that I haue charged thee with:

44 The king said moreuer to Shi-mei, Thou knowest all the wickednesse which thine heart is priue to, that thou diddest to David my father: therefore the L O R D shall returne thy wickednesse vpon thine owne head.

45 And king Salomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall bee established before the L O R D for euer.

46 So the king commaunded Benayah the sonne of Jehoiada, which went out, and fell vpon him, that he died, and the *kingdome was established in the hand of Solomon.

AND * Solomon made affinitie with Pharaoh
king of Egypt, and tooke Pharaohs daughter, and brought her into the citie
of David, vntill he had made an end of building his owne house, and the house of the L O R D , and the wall of Jerusalem round about.

2 Only the people sacrificed in high places, because there was no house built vnto the Name of the L O R D vntill those dayes.

3 And Solomon loued the L O R D , walking in the statutes of David his father: onely he sacrificed and burnt incense in high places.

4 And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there; for that was the great high place: a thousand burnt offerings did Solomon offer vp on that Altar.

5 ¶ In Gibeon the L O R D appeared to Solomon in a dreame by night:
and God sayd, Aske what I shall give

6 And Solomon said, Thou hast shewed vnto thy seruant David my fa-

stead of David my father: and I am but a little childe: I know not how to goe out or come in.

8 And thy servant is in the midst of thy people which thou hast chosen, a great people, that cannot be numbered, nor counted for multitude.

9 * Give therefore thy servant an understanding heart, to judge thy people, that I may discerne betweene good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy so great a people?

10 And the speach pleased the L O R D, that Solomon had asked this thing.

11 And God said vnto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thy selfe long life, neither hast asked riches for thy selfe, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies, but hast asked for thy selfe understanding to discerne judgement;

12 Behold, I haue done according to thy word: loe, I haue gauen thee a wise and an vnderstanding heart, so that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee.

13 And I haue also * ginen thee that which thou hast not asked, both riches, and honour: so that there shall not be any among the Kings like unto thee, all thy dayes.

14 And if thou wilst walke in my wayes, to keepe my Statutes and my Commandements, * as thy father Dauid did walke, then I will lengthen thy dayes.

15 And Solomion awoke, and behold, it was a dreame: and he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the Arke of the Covenant of the L O R D, and offered by burnt offerings, and offered peace offerings, and made a feast to all his servants.

16 Then came there two women that were harlots, vnto the king, and stood before him.

17 And the one woman said, O my lord, I and this woman dwel in one house, and I was deliuered of a childe, with her in the house.

18 And it came to passe the third day after that I was deliuered, that this woman was deliuered also: and wee were together; there was no stranger with vs in the house, saue we two in the house.

19 And this womans childe died in the night: because she ouerlaid it.

20 And shee arose at midnight, and tooke my sonne from beside me, while thine handmaid slept, and layd it in her bosome, and layd her dead childe in my bosome.

21 And when I rose in the morning to gaine my childe sucke, behold, it was dead: but when I had considered it in the morning, beholde, it was not my sonne, which I did beare.

22 And the other woman said, Nay, but the living is my sonne, and the dead is thy sonne: And this said, No, but the dead is thy sonne, and the living is my sonne. Thus they spake before the king.

23 Then said the King, The one saith, This is my sonne, that liueth, and thy sonne is the dead: and the other saith Nay: but thy sonne is the dead, and my sonne is the living.

24 And the King said, Bring mee a sword. And they brought a sword before the king:

25 And the king said, Diuide the liuing childe in two, and gaine halfe to the one, and halfe to the other.

26 Then spake the woman whose the liuing childe was, vnto the king, (for her bowels † yerned vpon her sonne) and she said, O my lord, gaine her the liuing childe, and in no wise slay it: But the other said, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but diuide it.

27 Then the King answered and said, Give her the liuing child, and in no wise slay it: she is the mother thereof.

28 And all Israel heard of the Judgement which the king had iudged, and they feared the King: for they saw that the wisedome of God was † in him, to doe Judgement.

And Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants unto Solomon: (for hee had heard that they had anointed him King in the rōume of his father,) for Hiram was ever a louer of David.

2 And * Solomon sent to Hiram, saying,

3 Thou knowest how that David my father could not build an house vnto the Name of the L O R D his God, for the warres which were about him on every side, vntill the L O R D put them vnder the soles of his feet.

4 But now the L O R D my God hath giuen me rest on every side, so that there is neither aduersary, nor euill occurrent.

5 And behold, I † purpose to build an house vnto the Name of the L O R D my God, * as the L O R D spake vnto David my father, saying, Thy sonne, whom I will set vpon thy throne in thy rōume, he shall build an house vnto my Name.

6 Now therefore command thou, that they hew me Cedar trees out of Lebanon, and my seruants shall bee with thy seruants: and vnto thee will I give hire for thy seruants, according to all that thou shalt † appoint: for thou knowest that there is not among vs, any that can skill to hew timber, like vnto the Sidonians.

7 And it came to passe when Hiram heard the wordes of Solomon, that hee reioyced greatly, and said, Blessed be the L O R D this day, which hath giuen vnto David a wise sonne ouer this great people.

8 And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, I haue † considered the things which thou sentest to me for: and I will doe all thy desire concerning timber of Cedar, and concerning timber offirre.

9 My seruants shall bring them downe from Lebanon vnto the Sea: and I wil conuey them by sea in flotes, vnto the place that thou shalt † appoint me, and will cause them to be discharged there, and thou shalt receive them: and thou shalt accomplish my desire, in giving food for my houshold.

10 So Hiram gaue Solomon Cedar trees, and Firre trees, according to all his desire.

11 And Solomon gaue Hiram twentie thousand † measures of Wheate for food to his houshold, and twentie measures of pure oile: thus gaue Solomon to Hiram yeere by yeere.

12 And the L O R D gaue Solomon wisdome, * as hee promised him: and there was peace betweene Hiram and Solomon, and they two made a league together.

13 ¶ And King Solomon raised a leue out of all Israel, and the leue was thirtie thousand men.

15 And Solomon had threescore and ten thousand that bare burdens, and fourscore thousand hewers in the mountaines:

16 Besides the chiefe of Solomons officers which were ouer the worke, three thousand and three hundred, which ruled ouer the people that wrought in the Worke.

17 And the king commanded, and they brought great stones, costly stones, and hewed stones, to lay the foundation of the house.

The building

I.Kings.

of the Temple.

2 And the house which king Solomon built for the L O R D , the length thereof was threescore cubites , and the breadth thereof twentie cubits , and the height thereof thirtie cubites .

3 And the porch before the Temple of the house : twentie cubites was the length thereof , according to the breadth of the house , and tenne cubites was the breadth thereof before the house .

4 And for the house he made windows of narrow lights .

5 ¶ And against the wall of the house he built chambers round about , against the walles of the house round about , both of the Temple and of the Oracle : and hee made chambers round about .

6 The nethermost chamber was five cubites broad , and the middle was sixe cubites broad , and the third was seven cubites broad : for without in the wall of the house hee made narrowed rests round about , that the beames should not bee fastened in the walles of the house .

7 And the house when it was in building , was built of stone , made ready before it was brought thither : so that there was neither hammer nor axe , nor any toole of yron heard in the house , while it was in building .

8 The doore for the middle chamber was in the right side of the house : and they went vp with winding staires into the middle chamber , and out of the middle into the third .

9 So he built the house and finished it : and couered the house with beams and boards of Cedar .

10 And then hee built chambers against all the house , five cubites high : and they rested on the house with timber of Cedar .

11 ¶ And the word of the L O R D came to Solomon , saying :

12 Concerning this house which thou art in building , if thou wilt walke in my Statutes , and execute my Judgements , and keepe all my Commandements to walke in them : then will I performe my word with thee , * which I speake unto David thy father .

13 And I will dwell among the children of Israel , and will not forsake my people Israel .

14 So Solomon built the house , and finished it .

15 And hee built the walles of the house within with boards of Cedar , both the floore of the house , and the walles of the siebling : and hee couered them on the inside with wood , and couered the floore of the house with plankes of firre .

16 And hee built twentie cubites on the sides of the house , both the floore , and the walles with boards of Cedar : he euen built them for it within , euen for the Oracle , euen for the most holy place .

17 And the house , that is , the Temple before it , was fortie cubites long .

18 And the Cedar of the house within was carued with knobs , and open floweres : all was Cedar , there was no stone seene .

19 And the Oracle he prepared in the house within , to set there the Arke of the Covenant of the L O R D .

20 And the Oracle in the forepart , was twentie cubites in length and twentie cubites in breadth , and twentie cubites in the height thereof : and hee overlayd it with pure golde , and so couered the Altar which was of Cedar .

21 So Solomon overlayd the house within with pure golde : and he made a partition , by the chaines of golde before the Oracle , and he overlaid it with gold .

22 And the whole house he overlaid with golde vntill he had finished all the house : also the whole Altar that was by the Oracle he overlaide with golde .

23 ¶ And within the Oracle he made two Cherubims of Oliue tree , each ten cubites high .

24 And five cubits was the one wing of the Cherub , and five cubits the other wing of the Cherub : from the uttermost part of the one wing , vnto the uttermost part of the other , were ten cubites .

25 And the other Cherub was tenne cubites : both the Cherubims were of one measure , and one size .

26 The height of the one Cherub was ten cubites , and so was it of the other Cherub .

27 And he set the Cherubims within the inner house : and * they stretched foorth the wings of the Cherubims , so that the wing of the one touched the one wall , and the wing of the other Cherub touched the other wall : & their wings touched one another in the midst of the house .

28 And he overlayd the Cherubims with golde .

29 And hee carued all the walles of the

the house round about with carued figures of Cherubims, and palme trees, and open flowers, within & without.

<sup>30</sup> And the floore of the house hee overlayed with gold, within and without.

<sup>31</sup> C And for the entring of the Oracle he made doores of Olive tree: the lintell and side posts were ||a fifth part of the wall.

<sup>32</sup> The ||two doores also were of Olive tree, and he carued upon them carvings of Cherubims, and palme trees, and open flowers, and overlayd them with gold, and spread gold vpon the Cherubims, and vpon the palme trees.

<sup>34</sup> And the two doores were of firre tree: the two leaues of the one doore were folding, and the two leaues of the other doore were folding.

<sup>35</sup> And he carued thereon Cherubims, and palme trees, and open flowers: and couered them with gold, fitted vpon the carued worke.

<sup>38</sup> And in the eleventh yeere in the moneth Bul (which is the eight moneth) was the house finished ||throughout all the parts therof, and according to all the fashion of it: So was he seuen yeeres in building it.

With Cedar beames vpon the pillars.

22 And vpon the top of the pillars was lillie Worke: so was the Worke of the pillars finished.

23 C And he made a moulten Sea, ten cubites † from the one brim to the other: it was round all about, & his height was five cubits: and a line of thirtie cubites did compasse it round about.

24 And vnder the brimme of it round about there were knops compasing it, ten in a cubite, * compassing the sea round about: the knops were cast in two rowes, when it was cast.

25 It stood vpon twelue oxen, three looking toward the North, and three looking toward the West, and three looking toward the South, and three looking toward the East: and the Sea was set aboue vpon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

26 And it was an hand breadth thick, and the brimme thereof was wrought like the brim of a cup, with floires of lillies: it contained two thousand Baths.

27 C And he made ten bases of brass, four cubites was the length of one base, and four cubites the breadth thereof, and three cubites the height of it.

28 And the Worke of the bases was on this maner: they had borders, and the borders were betwene the ledges:

29 And on the borders that were betwene the ledges were lyons, oren, and Cherubims: and vpon the ledges there was a base aboue: and beneath the lyons and oren were certaine additions made of thinne Worke.

30 And every base had foure brasen wheeles, and plates of brass: and the foure corners therof had vndersetters: vnder the lauer were vndersetters molten, at the side of every addition.

31 And the mouth of it Within the chapter, and aboue, was a cubite: but the mouth thereof was round after the Worke of the base, a cubite and an halfe: and also vpon the mouth of it were graunings with their borders, foure square not round.

32 And vnder the borders were foure Wheeles: & the axletrees of the wheeles were ioyned to the base, and the height of a wheele was a cubite and halfe a cubite.

33 And the Worke of the Wheeles was like the Worke of a charet Wheele: their axletrees and their naues, and their felloes, and their spokes were all molten.

35 And in the top of the base was there a round compasse of halfe a cubite high: and on the top of the base the ledges thereof, and the borders thereof were of the same.

36 For on the plates of the ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof, he graued Cherubims, lions, and palme trees, according to the † proportion of euery one, and additions round about.

37 After this maner he made the ten bases: all of them had one casting, one measure, and one size.

38 C Then made hee ten lauers of brass: one lauer contained fourtie baths: and every lauer was four cubites, and vpon every one of the ten bases, one lauer.

39 And he put five bases on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house: and he set the Sea on the right side of the house Eastward, ouer against the South.

Bhen *Solomon assembled the Elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the †chiefe of the fathers of the children of Israel, vnto king Solomon in Jerusalem, that they might bring vp the Arke of the Covenant of the L O R D , out of the citie of David, which is Zion.

2 And all the men of Israel assembled themselves vnto king Solomon, at the feast, in the moneth Ethanim, which is the seventh moneth.

3 And all the Elders of Israel came, and the Priests tooke vp the Arke.

4 And they brought vp the Arke of the L O R D , and the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tabernacle, euuen those did the Priests & the Leuites bring vp.

5 And king Solomon, and all the Congregation of Israel, that were assembled vnto him, were with him before the Arke, sacrificing sheepe, and oxen, that could not bee told nor numbered for multitude.

6 And the Priests brought in the Arke of the Covenant of the L O R D vnto his place, into the Oracle of the house to the most holy place, euuen vnder the wings of the Cherubims.

7 For the Cherubims spread forth their two wings ouer the place of the Arke, and the Cherubims couered the Arke, and the staves thereof aboue.

8 And they drew out the staves, that the †ends of the staves were seene out in the ||Holy place before the Oracle, and they were not seene without: and there they are vnto this day.

15 And he said, Blessed be the L O R D God of Israel, which spake with his mouth unto David my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it, saying;

16 Since the day that I brought foorth my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no citie out of all the tribes of Israel to build an house that my Name might be therein; but I chose * David to be ouer my people Israel.

17 And it was in the heart of David my father, to builde an house for the Name of the L O R D God of Israel.

18 And the L O R D sayd unto David my father, Whereas it was in thine heart to build an house vnto my Name, thou diddest well that it was in thine heart.

19 Neverthelesse, thou shalt not build the house, but thy sonne that shall come foorth out of thy loynes, hee shall build the house vnto my Name.

20 And the L O R D hath perfourmed his word that he spake, and I am risen vp in the roume of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the L O R D promised, and haue built an house for the Name of the L O R D God of Israel.

21 And I haue set there a place for the Arke, wherein is the Covenant of the L O R D, which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

22 ¶ And Solomon stood before * the Altar of the L O R D, in the presence of all the Congregation of Israel, and spread foorth his handes toward heauen:

23 And hee said, * L O R D God of Israel, there is no God like thee, in heauen aboue, or on earth beneath, who keepest covenant and mercy with thy seruants, that walke before thee with all their heart:

24 Who hast kept with thy seruant David my father that thou promisedst him: thou spakest also with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day.

25 Therefore now L O R D God of Israel, keepe with thy seruant David my father, that thou promisedst him, saying; * † There shall not faile thee a man in my sight to sit on the Throne of Israel; † so that thy children take heed to their way, that they walke before me as thou hast walked before me:

26 And now, O God of Israel, let thy Worde (I pray thee) bee verified, which thou spakest vnto thy seruant David my father.

27 But will God indeede dwelle on the earth: Behold, the heauen, and heauen of heauens cannot conteine thee: how much lesse this house that I haue builded?

28 Yet haue thou respect vnto the prayer of thy seruant, and to his supplication, O L O R D my God, to hearken vnto the crie and to the prayer, which thy seruant prayeth before thee to day:

29 That thine eyes may be open toward this house, night and day, euen toward the place of which thou hast said, * My Name shall be there: that thou mayest hearken vnto the prayer which thy seruant shall make || towards this place.

30 And hearken thou to the supplication of thy seruant, and of thy people Israel, when they shall pray || towards this place: and heare thou in heauen thy dwelling place, and when thou hearest, forgive.

31 ¶ If any man trespass against his neighbour, † and an oath be laid vpon him to cause him to sweare, and the oath come before thine Altar in this house:

32 Then heare thou in heauen, and doe, and iudge thy seruants, condemning the wicked to bring his way vpon his head, and iustifying the righteous, to give him according to his righeteousnesse.

33 ¶ When thy people Israel bee smitten downe before the enemie, because they haue sinned against thee, and shall turne againe to thee, and confesse thy Name, and pray, and make supplication vnto thee || in this house:

34 Then heare thou in heauen, and forgive the sinne of thy people Israel, and bring them againe vnto the land, which thou gauest vnto their fathers.

35 ¶ When heauen is shut vp, and there is no raine, because they haue sinned against thee: if they pray towards this place, and confesse thy Name, and turne from their sinne, when thou afflictest them:

64 The same day did the king hal-low the middle of the Court that was before the house of the LOR<sup>D</sup>: for there hee offered burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings: because * the brasen Altar that was before the LOR<sup>D</sup>, was too lit-tle to receive the burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings.

65 And at that time Solomon held a feast, and all Israel with him, a great Congregation, from the entring in of Hamath, vnto the riuere of Egypt, be-fore the LOR<sup>D</sup> our God, seuen dayes and seuen dayes, euene fourteene dayes.

66 On the eight day he sent the peo-ple away: and they blessed the King, and went vnto their tents ioyfull, and glad of heart, for all the goodnesse that the LOR<sup>D</sup> had done for David his seruant, and for Israel his people.

15 C And this is the reason of the leue which king Solomon raised, for to build the house of the L O R D, and his owne house, and Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer.

16 For Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone vp, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slaine the Canaanites that dwelt in the citie, and giuen it for a present vnto his daughter Solomons wife.

17 And Solomon built Gezer, and Beth-horon the nether,

21 Their children that were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel also were not able utterly to destroy, vpon those did Solomon leue a tribute of bond-service vnto this day.

22 But of the children of Israel did Solomon * make no bondmen: but they were men of warre, and his seruants, and his princes, and his captaines, and rulers of his charets, and his horsemen.

23 These were the chiefe of the officers that were ouer Solomons Worke, fiftie hundred and fiftie, which bare rule ouer the people that wrought in the Worke.

27 And hiram sent in the nauie his seruants, shipmen that had knowledge of the Sea, with the seruants of Solomon.

11 Wherefore the L O R D said unto Solomon: Forasmuch as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my Covenant, and my Statutes which I haue commaunded thee, * I wil surely rend the kingdome from thee, and will give it to thy servant.

12 Notwithstanding in thy dayes I wil not doe it, for David thy fathers sake: but I wil rend it out of the hand of thy sonne.

13 Howbeit, I wil not rend away all the kingdome: but wil give one tribe to thy sonne, for David my seruants sake, and for Jerusalems sake, which I haue chosen.

14 ¶ And the L O R D stirred vp an aduersary unto Solomon, Hadad the Edomite: hee was of the kings seed in Edom.

15 * For it came to passe when David was in Edom, and Joab the captaine of the host was gone vp to bury the slaine, after he had smitten every male in Edom:

18 And they arose out of Midian, and came to Paran, and they tooke men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, which gaue him an house, and appointed him vtailes, and gaue him land.

19 And Hadad found great fauour in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gaue him to wife the sister of his owne wife, the sister of Lahpenes the Queene.

20 And the sister of Lahpenes bare him Genubath his sonne, whom Lahpenes weaned in Pharaohs house: and Genubath was in Pharaohs household among the sonnes of Pharaoh.

21 And when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captaine of the host was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, <sup>+ Let me depart, that I may go to mine</sup> owne countrey.

22 Then Pharaoh said unto him, But what hast thou lacked with mee, that, behold, thou seekest to goe to thine owne countrey? And hee answered, <sup>+ Nothing: Howbeit, let mee goe in any wise.</sup>

27 And this was the cause that hee lift vp his hand against the king: Solomon built Millo, and † repaired the breaches of the citie of David his father.

28 And the man Ieroboam was a michtie man of valour: and Solomon seeing the young man that he † was industrious, hee made him ruler ouer all the † charge of the house of Joseph.

29 And it came to passe at that time when Ieroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahuah the Shilonite found him in the way: and hee had clad himselfe with a new garment; and they two were alone in the field.

30 And Ahuah caught the new garment that was on him, and rent it in twelue pieces.

31 And he said to Ieroboam, Take thee tenne pieces: for thus sayth the L O R D the God of Israel, Behold, I will rent the kingdome out of the hand of Solomon, and will giue ten tribes to thee:

36 And unto his sonne will I giue one tribe, that David my seruant may haue a † light alway before me in Jerusalem, the citie which I haue chosen me to put my Name there.

37 And I will take thee, and thou shalt reigne according to all that thy soule desireth, and shalt be King ouer Israel.

38 And it shall be, if thou wilt hearken unto all that I command thee, and wilt walke in my wayes, and doe that is right in my sight, to keepe my Statutes and my Commandementes, as David my seruant did; that I will be with thee, and build thee a sure house, as I built for David, and will giue Israel vnto thee.

39 And I will for this afflict the seed of David, but not for euer.

1 The Israelites assembled at Shechem to crowne Rehoboam, by Ieroboam make a suite of relaxation vnto him. 6 Rehoboam refusing the olde mens counsell, by the aduice of young men, answereth them roughly. 16 Ten tribes reuolting, kill Adoram, and make Rehoboam to flee. 21 Rehoboam raising an armie, is forbidden by Shemaiah. 25 Ieroboam strengtheneth himselfe by cities, 26 and by the idolatrie of the two calues.

3 That they sent, and called him: and Ieroboam and all the Congregation of Israel came, and spake vnto Rehoboam, saying;

4 Thy father made our * yoke grieuous: now therefore, make thou the grieuous seruice of thy father, and his heavy yoke which he put vpon vs, lighter, and we will serue thee.

me. And the people departed.

6 ¶ And king Rehoboam consulted with the old men that stood before Solomon his father, while he yet lived, and said, How doe you advise, that I may answere this people?

7 And they spake vnto him, saying, If thou wilst be a seruant vnto this people this day, and wilst serue them, and answere them, and speake good words to them, then they will be thy seruants for euer.

8 But hee forsooke the counsell of the old men, which they had giuen him, and consulted with the yong men, that were growen vp with him, and which stood before him.

9 And hee said vnto them, What counsell giue ye, that we may ansvere this people, who haue spoken to mee, saying, Make the yoke which thy father did put vpon vs, lighter?

10 And the yong men that were growen vp with him, spake vnto him, saying, Thus shalt thou speake vnto this people that speake vnto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it lighter vnto vs; thus shalt thou say vnto them, My little finger shall bee thicker then my fathers loynes.

11 And now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will adde to your yoke: my father hath chastised you with whippes, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 ¶ So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had appointed, saying, Come to me againe the third day.

13 And the king answered the people roughly, and forsooke the old mens counsell that they gaue him:

14 And spake to them after the counsell of the yong men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, and I will adde to your yoke; my father also chasti-sed you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 Wherefore the king hearkened not vnto the people: for the cause was from the L O R D , that hee might per-forme his saying, which the L O R D spake by * Ahia the Shilonite vnto Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat.

16 ¶ So when all Israel saw that the king hearkned not vnto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion haue we in David: neither haue we inheritance in the sonne of Jesse: to your tents, O Israel: nowe see to thine owne house, David. So Israel departed vnto their tents.

17 But as for the children of Israel which dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned ouer them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was ouer the tribute, and all Israel stoned him with stones that hee died: therefore king Rehoboam † made speed to get him vp to his charet, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 So Israel || rebelled against the house of David vnto this day.

20 And it came to passe when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was come againe, that they sent and called him vnto
the Congregation, and made him king
ouer all Israel: there was none that followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah * onely.

21 ¶ And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, hee assembled all the house of Judah, with the tribe of Beniamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men which were war-riers, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdome againe to Rehoboam the sonne of Solomon.

22 But * the word of God came vnto Shemaiah, the man of God, saying,

23 Speake vnto Rehoboam the sonne of Solomon king of Judah, and vnto all the house of Judah and Beniamin, and to the remnant of the people, saying,

24 Thus saith the L O R D , Be shall not goe vp, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: returne every man to his house, for this thing is from me. They hearkened therefore to the word of the L O R D , and returned to depart, according to the word of the L O R D .

25 ¶ Then Jeroboam built She-chen in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein, and went out from thence, and built Penuel.

26 And Jeroboam said in his heart,
Now shall the kingdome returne to the house of David:

27 If this people goe vp, to doe sacrifice in the house of the L O R D at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turne againe vnto their lorde, euen vnto Rehoboam king of Judah,
and they shall kill mee, and goe againe
to Rehoboam king of Judah.

30 And this thing became a sinne: for the people went to worship before the one, euen vnto Dan.

31 And he made an house of hie places, and made priests of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sonnes of Levi.

32 And Jeroboam ordeined a feast in the eight moneth, on the fifteenth day of the moneth, like vnto the feast that is in Judah, and he offered vpon the altar (so did he in Bethel,) sacrificing vnto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places which he had made.

33 So hee offered vpon the altar, which hee had made in Bethel, the fifteenth day of the eighth moneth, euen in the moneth which he had deuised of his owne heart: and ordeined a feast vnto the children of Israel, and he offered vpon the altar, †and burnt incense.

saying, This is the signe which the L O R D hath spoken: Behold, the altar shall be rent, and the ashes that are vpon it, shalbe powred out.

4 And it came to passe when king Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God, which had cried against the altar in Bethel, that he put forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him: And his hand which hee put foorth against him, dried vp, so that hee could not pull it in againe to him.

5 The altar also was rent, and the ashes powred out from the altar, according to the signe which the man of God had giuen by the word of the L O R D.

6 And the king answered, and said vnto the man of God, Intreat now the face of the L O R D thy God, and pray for mee, that my hand may be restored mee againe. And the man of God besought † the L O R D, and the kings hand was restored againe, and became as it was before.

7 And the king said vnto the man of God, Come home with mee, and refresh thy selfe, and I wil give thee a reward.

8 And the man of God said vnto the king, If thou wilt give mee halfe thine house, I will not goe in with thee, neither will I eat bread, nor drinke water in this place:

9 For so was it charged mee by the word of the L O R D, saying, Eat no bread, nor drinke water, nor turne again by the same way that thou camest.

10 So he went another way, and returned not by the way that hee came to Bethel.

11 ¶ Now there dwelt an old prophet in Bethel, and his sonne came and told him all the workes that the man of God had done that day in Bethel: the words which hee had spoken vnto the king, them they tolde also to their father.

12 And their father said vnto them, what way went he: for his sonnes had seene what way the man of God went, which came from Judah.

13 And hee saide vnto his sonnes, Saddle me the asse. So they saddled him the asse, and he rode thereon,

14 And went after the man of God, and found him sitting vnder an oke; and he said vnto him, Art thou the man of God that camest from Judah? And he said, I am.

15 Then

And behold, there came a man of God out of Judah by the word of the L O R D unto Bethel: and Jeroboam stood by the altar to burne incense.

2 And hee cried against the altar in the word of the L O R D, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith the L O R D, Behold, a child shalbe borne vnto the house of David, * Josiah by name, and vpon thee shall he offer the priests of the high places that burne incense vpon thee, and mens bones shall bee burnt vpon thee.

3 And he gaue a signe the same day,

15 Then hee said vnto him, Come home with me, and eate bread.

16 And he said, I may not returme with thee, nor goe in with thee: neither will I eat bread, nor drinke water with thee in this place.

17 For †it was said to mee by the word of the L O R D , Thou shalt eate no bread, nor drinke water there, nor turne againe to go by the way that thou camest.

18 He said vnto him, I am a prophet also as thou art, and an angel spake vnto me by the word of the L O R D , saying, Bring him backe with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread, and drinke water: But he lied vnto him.

19 So he went backe with him, and did eate bread in his house, and dranke water.

20 ¶ And it came to passe as they sate at the table, that the word of the L O R D came vnto the prophet that brought him backe:

21 And he cried vnto the man of God that came from Judah, saying, Thus saith the L O R D , Forasmuch as thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the L O R D , and hast not kept the commandement which the L O R D thy God commanded thee, 22 But camest backe, and hast eaten bread, and drinke water, in the place, of the which the L O R D did say to thee, Eat no bread, and drinke no water; thy carcase shall not come vnto the sepulchre of thy fathers.

23 ¶ And it came to passe after he had eaten bread, and after hee had drunke, that he saddled for him the asse, to wit, for the prophet, whome hee had brought backe.

24 And when he was gone, a lyon met him by the way, and slew him: and his carcase was cast in the way, and the asse stood by it, the lyon also stood by the carcase.

25 And beholde, men passed by, and saw the carcase cast in the way, and the lyon standing by the carcase: and they came and told it in the citie where the old prophet dwelt.

26 And when the prophet that brought him back from the way, heard thereof, he said, It is the man of God, who was disobedient vnto the word of the L O R D : therefore the L O R D hath deliuered him vnto the lion, which hath †torne him, and slaine him, according to the word of the L O R D , which he spake vnto him.

27 And he spake to his sonnes, saying, Saddle me the asse: and they saddled him.

28 And he went and found his carcase cast in the way, and the asse and the lyon standing by the carcase: the lyon had not eaten the carcase, nor †torne the asse.

29 And the prophet tooke by the carcase of the man of God, and laid it vpon the asse, and brought it backe: and the old prophet came to the city, to mourne, and to burie him.

30 And hee laid his carcase in his owne graue, and they mourned ouer him, saying, Alas my brother.

31 And it came to passe after hee had buried him, that he spake to his sonnes, saying, When I am dead, then bury me in the sepulchre, wherein the man of God is buried, lay my bones beside his bones.

32 For the saying which hee cried by the word of the L O R D against the altar in Bethel, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria, shall surely come to passe.

33 ¶ After this thing, Jeroboam returned not from his euill way, but †made againe of the lowest of the people priests of the high places: whosoeuer would, he †consecrated him, and he became one of the priests of the high places.

34 And this thing became sinne vnto the house of Jeroboam, even to cut it off, and to destroy it from off the face of the earth.

4 Neuerthelesse, for Davids sake did the L O R D his God give him a || lampe in Jerusalem , to set vp his sonne after him, and to establish Jerusalem :

5 Because David did that which was right in the eies of the L O R D , and turned not aside from any thing that he commanded him all the daies of his life, * saue onely in the matter of Uriah the Hittite.

6 And there was warre betweene Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the dayes of his life.

9 And * in the twentieth yeere of Jeroboam king of Israel, reigned Asa ouer Judah.

10 And forty and one yeeres reigned hee in Jerusalem : and his || mothers name was Maachah , the daughter of Abishalom.

11 And Asa did that which was right in the eies of the L O R D , as did David his father.

12 And hee tooke away the Sodomitess out of the land , and remoued all the idoles that his fathers had made.

13 And also * Maachah his mother, euen her hee remoued from being Queene, because she had made an idole in a groue, and Asa + destroyed her idole, and burnt it by the brooke Kidron.

14 But the high places Were not remoued: neuerthelesse, Asa his heart was perfect with the L O R D all his dayes.

15 And he brought in the + things which his father had dedicated, and the things which himselfe had dedicated, into the house of the L O R D , siluer, and gold, and vessels.

16 And there was war betweene Asa and Baasha King of Israel all their dayes.

20 So Benhadad hearkened vnto king Asa, and sent the captaines of the hosts, which he had, against the cities of Israel, and smote Jion, and Dan, and Abel-Bethmaachah, and all Cinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali.

21 And it came to passe when Baasha heard thereof, that hee left off building of Ramah, and dwelt in Tirzah.

22 Then king Asa made a Proclamation throughout all Judah, (none was †exempted:) and they tooke away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof wherewith Baasha had builded, and king Asa built with them Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah.

<sup>5</sup> Now the rest of the actes of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, are they not written in the * booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

<sup>7</sup> And also by the hand of the prophet Jehu the sonne of Hanani, came the word of the L O R D against Baasha, and against his house, even for all the euill that hee did in the sight of the L O R D, in prouoking him to anger with the worke of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, and because he killed him.

<sup>8</sup> ¶ In the twentie and sixt yeere of Asa king of Judah, began Elah the sonne of Baasha to reigne ouer Israel in Tirzah, two yeeres.

<sup>9</sup> And his seruant Zimri (captaine of halfe his charets) conspired against him as he was in Tirzah drinking himselfe drunke in the house of Arza † steward of his house in Tirzah.

<sup>10</sup> And Zimri went in and smote him, and killed him, in the twentie and seventh yeere of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his stead.

<sup>11</sup> ¶ And it came to passe when hee began to reigne, as soone as hee sate on his throne, that he slew all the house of Baasha: hee left him not one that pifseth against a wall, || neither of his kinsfolkes, nor of his friends.

<sup>13</sup> For all the sinnes of Baasha and the sinnes of Elah his sonne, by which they sinned, and by which they made Israel to sinne, in prouoking the L O R D God of Israel to anger with their vanities.

<sup>14</sup> Now the rest of the actes of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

<sup>15</sup> ¶ In the twentie and seventh yeere of Asa king of Judah, did Zimri reigne seuen dayes in Tirzah: and the people were encamped against Gibbethon which belonged to the Phalstines.

<sup>16</sup> And the people that were encamped, heard say, Zimri hath conspired, and hath also slaine the king: wherefore all Israel made Omri the captaine of the hoste, king ouer Israel that day, in the campe.

<sup>17</sup> And Omri went vp from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah.

<sup>18</sup> And it came to passe when Zimri saw that the citie was taken, that hee went into the palace of the kings house, and burnt the kings house ouer him with fire, and died,

<sup>19</sup> For his sinnes which he sinned in doing euill in the sight of the L O R D, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sinne which he did, to make Israel sinne.

<sup>20</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason that hee wrought, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

<sup>21</sup> ¶ Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: halfe of the people followed Tibni the sonne of Sinath, to make him king: and halfe followed Omri.

<sup>22</sup> But the people that followed Omri preuailed against the people that followed Tibni the sonne of Sinath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned.

<sup>23</sup> ¶ In the thirtie and one yeere of Asa king of Judah, began Omri to reigne ouer Israel twelue yeeres: sixe yeeres reigned he in Tirzah.

<sup>24</sup> And hee bought the hill Samaria of Shemer, for two talents of siluer, and built on the hill, and called the name of the citie which hee built, after the name of Shemer, owner of the hill, † Samaria.

<sup>25</sup> ¶ But Omri wrought euil in the eyes of the L O R D, and did worse then all that were before him.

<sup>26</sup> For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sinne wherewith hee made Israel to sinne, to prouoke the L O R D God of Israel to anger with their vanities.

<sup>27</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Omri, which he did, and his might that he shewed, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

31 And it came to passe, † as if it had beene a light thing for him to walke in the sinnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat; that hee tooke to wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Zidonians, and went and serued Baal, and worshipped him.

32 And hee reared vp an Altar for Baal, in the house of Baal, which hee had built in Samaria.

33 And Ahab made a groue, and Ahab did more to prouoke the L O R D God of Israel to anger, then all the kings of Israel that were before him.

34 C In his dayes did Hiel the Bethelite build Jericho: he laid the foundation therof in Abiram his first borne, and set vp the gates thereof in his yongest sonne Segub, * according to the word of the L O R D , which hee spake by Joshua the sonne of Nun.

4 And it shall bee, that thou shalt drinke of the brooke, and I haue comanded the rauens to feed thee there.

10 So he arose, and went to Zarephath: and when he came to the gate of the citie, behold, the widow woman was there gathering of stickes: and he called to her, and said, Fetch me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessell, that I may drinke.

11 And as shee was going to fetch it, he called to her, and said, Bring mee, I pray thee, a morsell of bread in thine hand.

13 And Elijah said unto her, Feare not, goe, and doe as thou hast said: but make mee thereof a little cake first, and bring it unto mee, and after make for thee, and for thy sonne.

14 For thus saith the L O R D God of Israel, The barrell of meale shall not waste, neither shall the cruse of oyle faile, vntill the day that the L O R D † sendeth raine vpon the earth.

15 And shee went, and did according to the saying of Elijah: and she, and he, and her house did eat || many dayes.

16 And the barrell of meale wasted not, neither did the cruse of oyle faile, according to the word of the L O R D , which he spake † by Elijah.

1 In the extremitie of famine Eliyah sent to Ahab , meeteth good Obadiah . 9 Obadiah bringeth Ahab to Eliyah . 17 Eliyah repro-uing Ahab , by fire from heauen conuinceth Baals prophets . 41 Eliyah by prayer obtai-

AND it came to passe after many daies , that the word of the L O R D came to E-liyah in the third yeere , saying , Goe shewe thy selfe vnto Ahab , and I will send raine vpon the earth .

2 And Eliyah went to shew him-ſelfe vnto Ahab , and there was a ſore famine in Samaria .

3 And Ahab called <sup>t</sup> Obadiah which was <sup>t</sup> the gouernour of his house : (now Obadiah feared the L O R D greatly :

4 For it was ſo , when <sup>t</sup> Jezebel cut off the prophets of the L O R D , that Obadiah tooke an hundred prophets , and hid them by fiftie in a caue , and fed them with bread and water .)

5 And Ahab ſaid vnto Obadiah , Goe into the land , vnto all fountaines of water , and vnto all brookes : perad-uenture we may finde grasse to ſave the horses and mules aline , that we <sup>t</sup> leſſe not all the beasts .

6 So they diuided the land betweene them to paſſe throughout it : Ahab went one way by himſelfe , and Ob-adiah went another way by himſelfe .

7 C And as Obadiah was in the way , behold , Eliyah met him : and hee knew him , and fell on his face , and ſaid ; Art thou that my lord Eliyah ?

8 And he answered him , I am : goe , tell thy lord , Behold , Eliyah is here .

9 And he ſaid , What haue I ſinned , that thou wouldest deliuer thy ſervant into the hand of Ahab , to ſlay mee ?

10 As the L O R D thy God liueth , there is no nation or kingdome , whither my lord hath not ſent to ſeeke thee : and when they ſaid , He is not there , hee tooke an oath of the kingdome and nation , that they found thee not .

11 And now thou ſayest , Goe , tell thy lord , Behold , Eliyah is here .

12 And it ſhall come to paſſe , as ſoone as I am gone from thee , that the ſpirit of the L O R D ſhall carry thee whither I know not : and ſo when I come and tell Ahab , and he cannot finde thee , he ſhall ſlay mee : but I thy ſervant feare the L O R D from my youth .

13 Was it not told my lord , what I did when Jezebel ſlew the prophets of the L O R D : how I hid an hundred men of the L O R D S prophets , by fiftie in a caue , and fedde them with bread and water ?

14 And now thou ſayest , Goe , tell thy lord , Behold , Eliyah is here : and hee ſhall ſlay me .

15 And Eliyah ſaid , As the L O R D of hostes liueth , before whom I stand , I will surely ſhew my ſelfe vnto him to day .

16 So Obadiah went to meeete Ahab , and told him : and Ahab went to meeete Eliyah .

17 C And it came to paſſe when Ahab ſaw Eliyah , that Ahab ſaide vnto him , Art thou hee that troubleth Israel ?

18 And hee answered , I haue not troubled Israel , but thou and thy fathers house , in that yee haue forſaken the Commandements of the L O R D , and thou haſt followed Baalim .

19 Now therefore ſend , and gather to mee all Israel vnto mount Carmel , and the prophets of Baal foure hundred and fiftie , and the prophets of the groves foure hundred , which eate at Jezebel's table .

20 So Ahab ſent vnto all the children of Israel , and gathered the prophets together vnto mount Carmel .

¶ Or,
thoughts.

21 And Eliiah came vnto all the people, and said, How long halt yee betweene two opinions: If the L<sup>O</sup>R<sup>D</sup> bee God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him: and the people answered him not a word.

22 Then said Eliiah vnto the people, I, euen I onely remaine a Prophet of the L<sup>O</sup>R<sup>D</sup>: but Baals prophets are foure hundred and fiftie men.

23 Let them therefore giue vs two bullocks, and let them chuse one bullocke for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on wood, and put no fire vnder: and I will dresse the other bullocke, and lay it on wood, and put no fire vnder.

24 And call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the Name of the L<sup>O</sup>R<sup>D</sup>: and the God that answereth by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered, and said, †It is well spoken.

25 And Eliiah said vnto the prophets of Baal, Chuse you one bullocke for your selues, and dresse it first, for yee are many: and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire vnder.

26 And they took the bullocke which was giuen them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning, euen vntil noone, saying, O Baal, heare vs. But there was no voyce, nor any that answered: And they leapt vpon the altar which was made.

27 And it came to passe at noone, that Eliiah mocked them, and saide, Crie †aloud: for he is a god, either he is talking, or he †is pursuing, or hee is in a iourney, or peraduenture he sleepeth, and must be awaked.

28 And they cried loud, and cut themselves after their maner, with kniues, and lancers, till †the blood gushed out vpon them.

29 And it came to passe when midday was past, and they prophesied vntil the time of the †offering of the euening sacrifice; that there was neither voice, nor any to answe, nor any that regarded.

30 And Eliiah said vnto all the people, Come neere vnto me. And all the people came neere vnto him. And he repaired the Altar of the L<sup>O</sup>R<sup>D</sup> that was broken downe.

31 And Eliiah tooke twelue stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sonnes of Jacob, vnto whome the word of the L<sup>O</sup>R<sup>D</sup> came, saying,

33 And he put the wood in order, and cut the bullocke in pieces, and laide him on the wood, and said, Fill foure barrels with Water, and poure it on the burnt sacrifice, and on the wood.

34 And hee said, Doe it the second time. And they did it the second time. And he said, Doe it the third time. And they did it the third time.

35 And the water †ran round about the altar, and hee filled the trench also with Water.

36 And it came to passe at the time of the offering of the euening sacrifice, that Eliiah the prophet came neere and said, L<sup>O</sup>R<sup>D</sup> God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, Let it bee knownen this day that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and that I haue done all these things at thy word.

37 Hear me, O L<sup>O</sup>R<sup>D</sup>, hear me, that this people may know that thou art the L<sup>O</sup>R<sup>D</sup> God, and that thou hast turned their heart backe againe.

38 Then the fire of the L<sup>O</sup>R<sup>D</sup> fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked vp the water that was in the trench.

39 And when all the people sawe it, they fell on their faces: and they saide, The L<sup>O</sup>R<sup>D</sup>, he is the God, the L<sup>O</sup>R<sup>D</sup>, he is the God.

40 And Eliiah saide vnto them, Take the prophets of Baal, let not one of them escape: And they tooke them, and Eliiah brought them downe to the brooke Kishon, and slew them there.

41 ¶ And Eliiah said vnto Ahab, Get thee vp, eate and drinke, for there is a sound of abundance of raine.

42 So Ahab went vp to eate and to drinke, and Eliiah went vp to the top of Carmel, and he cast himselfe downe vpon the earth, and put his face betwene his knees,

4 But he himselfe went a dayes iourney into the Wildernes, and came and sate downe vnder a Juniper tree: and hee requested † for himselfe that hee might die, and sayd, It is enough, now O L O R D, take away my life: for I am not better then my fathers.

5 And as hee lay and slept vnder a Juniper tree, behold then, an Angel touched him, and sayd vnto him, Arise, and eate.

6 And he looked, and behold, there was a cake baken on the coales, and a cruse of water at his † head: and hee did eate and drinke, and laide him downe againe.

7 And the Angel of the L O R D came againe the second time, and touched him, and sayd, Arise, and eate, because the iourney is too great for thee.

8 And hee arose, and did eate and drinke, and went in the strength of that meate fourtie dayes and fourtie nights, vnto Horreb the mount of God.

9 And he came thither vnto a caue, and lodged there, and behold, the word of the L O R D came to him, and he said vnto him, What doest thou here, Elijah?

10 And hee sayd, I haue beene very iealous for the L O R D God of hostes: for the children of Israel haue forsaken thy Couenant, throwen downe thine Altars, and slaine thy Prophets with the sword: and * I, euen I onely am left, and they seeke my life, to take it away.

11 And he sayd, Goe forth, and stand vpon the mount before the L O R D. And beholde, the L O R D passed by, and a great and strong Winde rent the mountaines, and brake in pieces the rockes, before the L O R D; but the L O R D was not in the Winde: and after the Winde an earthquake, but the L O R D was not in the earthquake.

12 And after the earthquake, a fire, but the L O R D was not in the fire: and after the fire, a still small voice.

13 And it was so, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entring in of the caue: and behold, there came a voice vnto him, and sayd, What doest thou here, Elijah?

14 And he sayd, I haue beene very iealous for the L O R D God of hostes, because the children of Israel haue forsaken thy Couenant, throwen downe thine Altars, and slaine thy Prophets with the sword, and I, euen I onely am left, and they seeke my life, to take it away.

15 And the L O R D sayd vnto him, Goe, returne on thy way to the Wildernes of Damascus: and when thou commest, anoint Hazael to be King ouer Syria.

16 And Iehu the sonne of Nimshi shalt thou anoint to bee king ouer Israel: and * Elisha the sonne of Shaphat of Abel Meholah, shalt thou anoint to be Prophet in thy roume.

17 And * it shall come to passe, that him that escapeth the sword of Hazael, shall Iehu slay: and him that escapeth from the sword of Iehu, shall Elisha slay.

1 Benhadad not content with Ahabs hommage, besiegeth Samaria. 13 By the direction of a Prophet, the Syrians are slaine. 22 As the Prophet forewarned Ahab, the Syrians trusting in the valleys, come against him in Aphek. 28 By the word of the Prophet, and Gods iudgment, the Syrians are smitten againe. 31 The Syrians submitting themselves, Ahab sendeth Benhadad away with a couenant. 35 The Prophet vnder the parable of a prisoner, making Ahab to judge himselfe, denounceth Gods iudgement against him.

And Benhadad the King of Syria gathered all his hoste together, and there were thirtie and two kings with him, and horses, and charets: and hee went vp and besieged Samaria, and warred against it.

2 And hee sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel, into the city, and saide vnto him, Thus saith Benhadad,

3 Thy siluer and thy gold is mine, thy wifes also, and thy children, euen the goodliest, are mine.

4 And the king of Israel answered, and said, My lord O king, according to thy saying, I am thine, and all that I haue.

5 And the messengers came againe, and saide, Thus speaketh Benhadad, saying, Although I haue sent vnto thee, saying, Thou shalt deliuer me thy siluer, and thy gold, and thy wifes, and thy children:

6 Yet I will send my seruants vnto thee to morrow about this time, and they shall search thine house, and the houses of thy seruants; and it shall be, that whatsoeuer is † pleasant in thine eyes, they shall put it in their hand, and take it away.

rable.</sup>

7 Then the king of Israel called all the Elders of the land, and saide; Marke, I pray you, and see how this man seeketh mischiefe: for hee sent vnto me for my wifes, and for my children, and for my siluer, and for my gold, and † I denied him not.

8 And all the Elders, and all the people said vnto him; Harken not vnto him, nor consent.

9 Wherefore hee said vnto the messengers of Benhadad, Tell my lord the king, All that thou diddest send for to thy seruant at the first, I will doe: but this thing I may not doe. And the messengers departed, and brought him word againe.

10 And Benhadad sent vnto him, and said, The gods doe so vnto me and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people that † follow me.

11 And the king of Israel answered, and said, Tell him, Let not him that girdeth on his harnesse, boast himselfe, as he that putteth it off.

12 And it came to passe, when Benhadad heard this † message (as hee was drinking, he and the kings in the || pavilions) that hee said vnto his seruants, || Set your selues in aray. And they set themselves in aray against the citie.

13 And behold, there † came a Prophet vnto Ahab king of Israel, saying, Thus saith the L O R D , Hast thou seene all this great multitude: behold, I will deliuer it into thine hand this day, and thou shalt knowe that I am the L O R D .

14 And Ahab saide, By whom: and he saide, Thus saith the L O R D , Euen by the || young men of the Princes of the prouinces: Then he said, Who shall † order the battell: And hee answered, Thou.

15 Then he numbered the young men of the Princes of the prouinces, and they were two hundred and thirty two: and after them hee numbered all the people, euen all the children of Israel, being seuen thousand.

16 And they went out at noone: But Benhadad

Benhadad was drinking himselfe drunke in the pavilions, hee and the kings, the thirty and two kings that helped him.

<sup>17</sup> And the young men of the Princes of the Provinces went out first, and Benhadad sent out, and they told him, saying, There are men come out of Samaria.

<sup>18</sup> And he said, whether they be come out for peace, take them aliuie: or whether they be come out for warre, take them aliuie.

<sup>19</sup> So these yong men of the princes of the provinces, came out of the citie, and the armie which followed them:

<sup>20</sup> And they flew every one his man: and the Syrians fled, and Israel pursued them: and Benhadad the king of Syria escaped on an horse, with the horsemen.

<sup>21</sup> And the king of Israel went out, and smote the horses and charets, and slew the Syrians with a great slaughter.

<sup>22</sup> C And the Prophet came to the king of Israel, and said vnto him, Goe, strengthen thy selfe, and marke and see what thou doest: for at the returne of the yeere, the king of Syria will come vp against thee.

<sup>23</sup> And the seruants of the King of Syria said vnto him, Their gods are gods of the hilles, therefore they were stronger then wee: but let vs fight against them in the plaine, and surely we shall be stronger then they.

<sup>25</sup> And number thee an armie, like the armie † that thou hast lost, horse for horse, and charet for charet: and wee will fight against them in the plaine, and surely wee shall be stronger then they. And hee hearkened vnto their voice, and did so.

<sup>26</sup> And it came to passe at the returne of the yeere, that Benhadad numbred the Syrians, and went vp to Aphek, † to fight against Israel.

<sup>27</sup> And the children of Israel were numbred, and || were all present, and went against them: and the children of Israel pitched before them, like two little flockes of kids: but the Syrians filled the countrey.

<sup>28</sup> C And there came a man of God, and spake vnto the king of Israel, and sayd, Thus sayth the L O R D , Because the Syrians haue sayde, The L O R D is God of the hilles, but hee is not God of the valleys: therefore will I deliuer all this great multitude into thine hand, and yee shall know that I am the L O R D .

<sup>29</sup> And they pitched one ouer against the other seuen daies, and so it was, that in the seuenth day the battell was ioyned: and the children of Israel slew the Syrians an hundred thousand footmen in one day.

<sup>30</sup> But the rest fled to Aphek, into the citie, and there a wall fell vpon twentie and seuen thousand of the men that were left: and Benhadad fled, and came into the citie, || into an inner chamber.

<sup>31</sup> C And his seruants said vnto him, Behold now, wee haue heard that the kings of the house of Israel are mercifull kings: let vs, I pray thee, putt sackcloth on our loynes, and ropes vpon our heads, and goe out to the king of Israel; peraduenture he will saue thy life.

<sup>32</sup> So they girded sackcloth on their loynes, and put ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, Thy seruant Benhadad saith, I pray thee, let me liue. And he said, Is he yet aliue? he is my brother.

<sup>33</sup> Now the men did diligently obserue whether any thing would come from him, and did hastily catch it: and they saide, Thy brother Benhadad. Then he said, Goe ye, bring him: then Benhadad came forth to him: and hee caused him to come vp into the charet.

<sup>34</sup> And Benhadad said vnto him, The cities which my father tooke from thy father, I will restore, and thou shalt make streets for thee in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria. Then said Ahab, I will send thee away with this couenant. So he made a couenant with him, and sent him away.

<sup>35</sup> C And a certaine man of the sonnes of the Prophets, saide vnto his neighbour in the word of the L O R D , Smite me, I pray thee. And the man refused to smite him.

<sup>36</sup> Then said he vnto him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voyce of the L O R D , beholde, assoone as thou art departed from me, a lyon shal slay thee. And assoone as hee was departed from him, a lyon found him, and slew him, 38 So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himselfe with ashes vpon his face.

39 And as the king passed by, he cried vnto the king: and he saide, Thy seruant went out into the mids of the battell, and behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man vnto me, and said, Keep this man: if by any meanes he be missing, then shall thy life be for his life, or else thou shalt † pay a talent of siluer.

40 And as thy seruant was busie here and there, † he was gone. And the king of Israel saide vnto him, So shall thy iudgement bee, thy selfe hast disci- ded it.

41 And he hasted, and tooke the ashes away from his face, and the king of Israel discerned him that hee was of the Prophets.

42 And hee said vnto him, Thus saith the L O R D , * Because thou hast let goe out of thy hand, a man whom I appointed to vtter destruction, therfore thy life shall goe for his life, and thy people for his people.

43 And the king of Israel went to his house, heauie, and displeased, and came to Samaria.

1 Ahab being denied Naboths vineyard, is grieved. 5 Jezebel writing letters against Naboth, he is condemned of blasphemie. 15 Ahab taketh possession of the vineyard. 17 Eliiah denounceth iudgements against Ahab and Jezebel. 25 Wicked Ahab repenting, God deferreth the judgement.

N And it came to passe after these things, that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was in Jezreel, hard by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.

2 And Ahab spake vnto Naboth, saying, Give me thy vineyard, that I may haue it for a garden of herbes, because it is neere vnto my house, and I will give thee for it a better vineyard then it: or if it † seeme good to thee, I will give thee the worth of it in money.

3 And Naboth said to Ahab, The L O R D forbid it mee, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers vnto thee.

4 And Ahab came into his house, heauie, and displeased, because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him: for he had saide, I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers: and he laid him downe vpon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eate no bread.

5 ¶ But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said vnto him, why is thy spirit so sad, that thou eatest no bread?

6 And he said vnto her, Because I speake vnto Naboth the Jezreelite, and said vnto him, Give mee thy vineyard for money, or else if it please thee, I will give thee another vineyard for it: And he answered, I wil not give thee my vineyard.

7 And Jezebel his wife saide vnto him, Doest thou now gouerne the kingdom of Israel: Arise, and eate bread, and let thine heart bee merrie: I will give thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.

8 So shee wrote letters in Ahabs name, and sealed them with his seale, and sent the letters vnto the Elders, and to the Nobles that were in his citie dwelling with Naboth.

9 And shee wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaime a fast, and set Naboth † on high among the people:

10 And set two men, sonnes of Belial before him, to beare witnes against him, saying, Thou diddest blasphemie God and the king: and then carie him out, and stone him that he may die.

11 And the men of his citie, euuen the Elders and the Nobles who were the inhabitants in his citie, did as Jezebel had sent vnto them, and as it was written in the letters which shee had sent vnto them.

12 They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people.

13 And there came in two men, chil- dren of Belial, and sate before him: and the men of Belial witnessed against him, euuen against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did blasphemie God and the king. Then they caried him foorth out of the citie, and stoned him with stones, that hee died.

14 Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, Naboth is stoned, and is dead.

15 ¶ And it came to passe when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, hab, Arise, take possession of the Vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which hee refused to give thee for money: for Naboth is not alane, but dead.

16 And it came to passe when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose vp to goe downe to the Vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

17 ¶ And the word of the L O R D came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

18 Arise, goe downe to meet Ahab king of Israel, which is in Samaria: behold, hee is in the Vineyard of Naboth, whither he is gone downe to possesse it.

19 And thou shalt speake vnto him, saying, Thus saith the L O R D, Hast thou killed, and also taken possession? And thou shalt speake vnto him, saying, Thus saith the L O R D, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth, shall dogges lick thy blood, euenthine.

20 And Ahab said to Elijah, Hast thou found me, O mine enemie? And he answered, I haue found thee: because thou hast sold thy selfe to worke euill in the sight of the L O R D.

25 ¶ But there was none like vnto Ahab, which did sell himselfe to worke wickednesse in the sight of the L O R D, Whom Jezebel his wife || stirred vp.

26 And hee did very abominably in following Idoles, according to all things as did the Amorites, whom the L O R D cast out before the children of Israel.

27 And it came to passe when Ahab heard those wordes, that hee rent his clothes, and put sackecloth vpon his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly.

28 And the word of the L O R D came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

29 Seest thou how Ahab humbleth himselfe before mee: because hee humbleth himselfe before mee, I will not bring the euill in his dayes: but in his sonnes dayes will I bring the euill vpon his house.

5 And Jehoshaphat said vnto the king of Israel, Enquire, I pray thee, at the word of the L O R D to day.

6 Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together about fourhundred men, and said vnto them, Shall I goe against Ramoth Gilead to battell, or shall I forbear? And they said, Goe vp, for the L O R D shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

10 And the King of Israel and Jehoshaphat the King of Judah sat each on his throne, having put on their robes, in a † vowyd place in the entrance of the gate of Samaria, and all the Prophets prophesied before them.

11 And Zedekiah the sonne of Chenanah made him hornes of iron: and he sayd, Thus saith the L O R D , with these shalt thou push the Syrians, vntill thou haue consumed them.

12 And all the Prophets prophesied so, saying; Goe vp to Ramoth Gilead, and prosper: for the L O R D shall deliver it into the kings hand.

13 And the messenger that was gone to call Micaiah, spake vnto him, saying, Behold now, the words of the prophets declare good vnto the King with one mouth: let thy word, I pray thee, bee like the word of one of them, and speake that which is good.

14 And Micaiah sayde, As the L O R D liueth, what the L O R D saith vnto me, that will I speake.

15 So he came to the king, and the king sayd vnto him, Micaiah, shall wee goe against Ramoth Gilead to battell, or shall we forbeare? And he answered him, Go, and prosper: for the L O R D shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

16 And the king said vnto him, How many times shall I adiure thee, that thou tell me nothing but that which is true, in the Name of the L O R D ?

17 And hee sayd, I saw all Israel scattered vpon the hilles, as sheepe that haue not a shepheard. And the L O R D said, These haue no master, let them retorne every man to his house in peace.

18 And the King of Israel said vnto Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee, that he would prophesie no good concerning me, but euill?

19 And he said, Hearre thou therefore the word of the L O R D : I sawe the L O R D sitting on his Throne, and all the hoste of heauen standing by him, on his right hand and on his left.

20 And the L O R D said, who shall || perswade Ahab, that hee may goe vp and fall at Ramoth Gilead? And one sayd on this manner, and another said on that manner.

21 And there came forth a spirit, and stood before the L O R D , and said, I will perswade him.

22 And the L O R D said vnto him, wherewith? And hee sayd, I will goe foorth, and I will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, Thou shalt perswade him, and preuaile also: Goe forth, and doe so.

23 Now therfore behold, the L O R D hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets, and the L O R D hath spoken euill concerning thee.

24 But Zedekiah the sonne of Chenanah went neere, and smote Micaiah on the cheeke, and said, * which way went the Spirit of the L O R D from me, to speake vnto thee?

25 And Micaiah sayde, Beholde, thou shalt see in that day, when thou shalt goe || into an inner chamber, to hide thy selfe.

26 And the King of Israel sayde, Take Micaiah, and cary him backe vnto Amon the gouernour of the citie, and to Joash the kings sonne:

27 And say, Thus saith the King, Put this fellow in the prison, and feede him with bread of affliction, and with water of afflictio, vntil I come in peace.

28 And Micaiah saide, If thou returne at all in peace, the L O R D hath not spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, O people, euery one of you.

29 So the King of Israel, and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, went vp to Ramoth Gilead.

30 And the king of Israel said vnto Jehoshaphat, || I wil disguise my selfe, & enter into the battell, but put thou on thy robes. And the King of Israel disguised himselfe, & went into the battell.

31 But the King of Syria commanded his thirtie and two Captaines that had rule ouer his charets, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, saue only with the king of Israel.

32 And it came to passe, when the captaines of the charets saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, Surely it is the king of Israel. And they turned aside to fight against him: and Jehoshaphat cryed out.

33 And it came to passe, when the captaines of the charets perceived that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned backe from pursuing him.

41 ¶ And * Jehoshaphat the sonne of Asa began to reigne ouer Judah in the fourth yeere of Ahab King of Israel.

42 Jehoshaphat was thirtie and five yeeres olde when hee began to reigne, and he reigned twentie and five yeeres in Jerusalem: and his mothers name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

43 And he walked in all the wayes of Asa his father, hee turned not aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of the L O R D: neuerthelesse, the high places were not taken away: for the people offered and burnt incense yet in the high places.

44 And Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel.

45 Now the rest of the actes of Jehoshaphat, and his myght that hee shewed, and how he warred, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

46 And the remnant of the Sodomitess which remained in the dayes of his father Asa, he tooke out of the land.

47 There was then no king in Edom: a deputie was king.

48 Jehoshaphat || made shippes of Tharsish to goe to Ophir for golde: but they went not, for the shippes were broken at Ezion Geber.

49 Then said Ahaziah the sonne of Ahab unto Jehoshaphat, Let my seruants goe with thy seruants in the shippes: But Jehoshaphat would not.

50 ¶ And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citie of David his father: and Iehoram his sonne reigned in his stead.

51 ¶ Ahaziah the sonne of Ahab began to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria the seventeenth yeere of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned two yeres ouer Israel.

52 And he did euill in the sight of the L O R D, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat, who made Israel to sinne.

53 For he serued Baal, and worshipped him, and provoked to anger the L O R D God of Israel, according unto all that his father had done.

1 Moab rebelleth. 2 Ahaziah, sending to Baalzebub, hath his iudgement by Eliiah. 5 Eliiah twise bringeth fire from heauen vpon them whom Ahaziah sent to apprehend him. 13 He pitith the third captaine, and incouraged by an Angel, telleth the King of his death. 17 Iehoram succeedeth Ahaziah.

* Chap. 3.

Hen Moab rebelled against Israel,* after the death of Ahab.

2 And Ahaziah fel downe thorrow a lattesse in his vpper chamber that was in Samaria, and was sicke: and he sent messengers, and said vnto them, Goe, enquire of Baalzebub the god of Ekron, whether I shal recover of this disease.

3 But the Angel of the LOR<sup>D</sup> said to Eliiah the Tishbite, Arise, goe vp to meeete the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say vnto them, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that ye goe to enquire of Baalzebub the god of Ekron?

4 Now therefore, thus sayeth the LOR<sup>D</sup>,<sup>t</sup> Thou shalt not come downe from that bed on which thou art gone vp, but shalt surely die. And Eliiah departed.

5 And when the messengers turned backe vnto him, he said vnto them, why are ye now turned backe?

6 And they said vnto him, There came a man vp to meeet vs, and said vnto vs, Goe, turne againe vnto the king that sent you, and say vnto him, Thus saith the LOR<sup>D</sup>, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that thou sendest to enquire of Baalzebub the god of Ekron: therefore thou shalt not come downe from that bedde on whiche thou art gone vp, but shalt surely die.

7 And hee said vnto them, <sup>t</sup> what maner of man was he which came vp to meet you, and told you these words?

8 And they answered him, He was an hairy man, and girt with a girdle of leather about his loynes: and he said, It is Eliiah the Tishbite.

9 Then the King sent vnto him a captaine of fiftie, with his fiftie: and he went vp to him, (and behold, he sate on the top of an hill) and hee spake vnto him, Thou man of God, the king hath said, Come downe.

10 And Eliiah answered, and said to the captaine of fiftie, If I be a man of God, then let fire come downe from heauen, and consume thee and thy fiftie. And there came downe fire from heauen, and consumed him and his fiftie.

11 Againe also hee sent vnto him another captaine of fiftie, with his fiftie: And hee answered, and said vnto him, O man of God, Thus hath the king said, Come downe quickly.

12 And Eliiah answered, and saide vnto them, If I be a man of God, let fire come downe from heauen, and consume thee, and thy fiftie. And the fire of God came downe from heauen, and consumed him, and his fiftie.

13 And hee sent againe a captaine of the third fiftie, with his fiftie: and the third captaine of fiftie went vp, and came and <sup>t</sup> fell on his knees before Eliiah, and besought him, and saide vnto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my life, and the life of these fiftie thy seruants, be precious in thy sight.

14 Behold, there came fire downe from heauen, and burnt vp the two captaines of the former fifties, with their fifties: Therefore let my life now be precious in thy sight.
